

ABOVE: Stefanie Uter, and Troy Truter carry artworks into the South African Association of Arts Gallery in Church Street for the Art-aid sale on from Friday to Sunday in aid of Crossroads refugees.

Artaid

Artists have been quick in following the lead of fund-raiser Bob Geldof. In response to the S A Association of Arts appeal for art for Crossroads aid the Association's store room has been filling up.

Sculptor Lorraine Edelstein brought in a handsome Bedouin neckpiece. Gallery International has donated a Lippy Lipshitz mixed media picture, painter Francine Greenblatt one of her large canvases. There will be more than one Christo Coetzee on the walls when the sale gets under way Friday through to Sunday.

"Art bargains of the year," promises SAAA chairman Louis van Vuuren.