SOME of the Cape's top artists have rallied in support of stable future local government in the Western Cape by giving works for auction at a gala banquet tomorrow.

The banquet is being hosted by non-statutory bodies taking part in the Future Local Government Forum to raise funds for training members.

Works for auction are by Jan Vermeiren, Erik Laubscher, Louis Janse van Vuuren, Robin Mann, Nico Verboom, Judy Woodburne, Nico Prins, Jonathan Comerford, Tyrone Appollis and Larry Scully.

"The message that they give is one of peace and stability for the Western Cape," says project manager Mariette Greyling.
