

SHOWING THE ART OF HEALING

AN ART event with a difference will be on view at the Bay Hotel, Camps Bay this weekend — a two-day art salon featuring paintings, graphics, drawings, sculpture, ceramics and jewellery by more than 70 contemporary South African artists. The works will be for sale, with a percentage of proceeds going to the Red Cross Children's Hospital. Opera star Aviva Pelham will open a private viewing today and the salon, with works displayed on easels, will be open to the public tomorrow and Monday from 10am to 6pm. Admission is free.
