

French theme for national gallery fashion show

THE latest creations to go on show at the National Gallery will be French, when the 1995 fashions from La Boutique Yvelle are shown there.

This will be the third year that the gallery has hosted this collection to raise funds for the SANG Education Trust.

This year they are allocated specifically to projects related to the exhibition District Six: Image And Representation.

Prizes

The fashion show will be held on Tuesday, August 22, at 10.30am in the Liberman Room, the largest gallery.

Tickets are R75 each and lucky ticket holders will win prizes, including an original work of art by Cape Town artist Louis Jansen van Vuuren.

Sparkling wine will be served with Sephardi delicacies, the speciality of La Boutique Yvelle's owner, Elsie Menasce.

Histories

The District Six Museum Foundation and SANG are engaged in a research project which will culminate in an exhibition representing District Six at the end of October.

As part of rewriting and reclaiming displaced histories, the exhibition is intended to show the perceptions, attitudes and themes embedded in works of art that have District Six as their subject.

□ Book for the show by calling Carol Kaufmann or Heidi Erdmann on (021) 45-1628 or Elzie Menasce on (021) 61-1611.

ARTIST AND MODEL:

Cape Town artist Louis Jansen van Vuuren displays one of his works of art with model Karen Barnard showing off another.

Hers is a suit designed in Paris to be shown at the National Gallery at a fund-raiser on August 22.