Exhibition with a local flavour

LOUIS JANSEN VAN VUUREN is exhibiting 63 current works at the Lipschitz Gallery, 140 Buitengracht Street, Cape Town at the entrance to the historic Bo-Kaap.

The exhibition includes a number of works set to be displayed in Paris next month. This is Van Vuuren's first solo exhibition in Cape Town since 1993.

The gallery has a particularly strong Cape Town ambience, having housed a wagon builder's workshop after the building was erected 130 years ago.
