

■ Tamboerskloof artist Louis Jansen van Vuuren has created a work especially for the forthcoming auction, 'Let there be light', inspired by a visit to Israel during Chanukah, the Festival of Lights.

Gala art auction for Israel's 50th

SEA Point residents Sue Lipshitz and Rael Levitt will be the convenor and auctioneer respectively at a gala art auction which takes place at the Good Hope Gallery at the Castle on April 19 in aid of Jewish communities internationally.

The auction is one of the highlights of the Cape Town celebrations of the Golden Jubilee of the State of Israel.

Internationally-recognised artists including Arlene Amaler-Raviv, Tyrone Appollis, Beezy Bailey, Reggi Bar David, Barbara Jackson, Louis Jansen van Vuuren and Cecil Skotnes are just some of the many whose works will come under the hammer on the night.

Many of the works have been especially created for the auction and Skotnes has donated one of his canvases.

"I am always amazed at the generosity of the artists to participate in humanitarian causes.

"This occasion will afford people the opportunity to have a permanent reminder of the 50th anniversary of the establishment of Israel," said Lipshitz.

All works to be auctioned may be viewed at the Gallery from Thursday April 15 from 10am-4pm daily.

Tickets cost R75 and are available from Mercia Streiman at 434 0933 or 0832611736. Included in the price is supper and cocktails