

Art for our orchestra

CAMPS Bay resident and art consultant Rose Korber will once again be presenting a wealth of creative talent when she brings to the Bay Hotel, the 5th annual 'Art Salon at the Bay' from Sunday December 1 to 10, from 10am-10pm. Featured will be recent paintings, drawings, original prints, photography, sculpture, ceramics, beadwork and pewter table art by some leading contemporary South African artists. All the artworks are for sale. Ten percent of the proceeds will go towards the funds of the CTSO. Pictured here with Rose, is the well known Tamboerskloof artist, whose work will form part of the exhibition - Louis Jansen van Vuuren. All enquiries regarding the salon are to made to 438 9152.
